SPECIAL SECURITY CENTER

Trends and Highlights

August 1974

1. The month of August was a transition period for the U.S. Intelligence Board Security Committee, and the SSC continued to provide the new Chairman with staff support. The new Executive Secretary has now been installed, and henceforth the OS/PPB will handle staffing work in support of the CIA Committee Member (the Director of Security).

2. Seventy (70) compartmented intelligence security indoctrinations and debriefings were conducted--sixteen (16) were Agency personnel, fifty-four (54) were officials outside the CIA. Non-Agency personnel briefed included officials of the Departments of Agriculture, Commerce, Treasury and Justice, the Federal Energy and Drug Enforcement Administrations, Office of Management and Budget, Secret Service, U.S. Information Agency, National Security Council, and the President's Foreign Intelligence Advisory Board.
